Mrs. Dudley Laughs at the Articles Gotten Up by Reporters for the London Press.

A Batch of Congressional News---A Record of Murders---Casualties and Fires.

An Oregon Tragedy.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 5.—The steamer Evangel, which arrived to-day from Crouise to San Juan Island brings the news of a terrible tragedy which occurred on Shaw's Island, San Juan county, last Monday. James Barker had gone for a hunt on the island, and when he did not return after a lapse of ten days, Sheriff John Kelly, of San, Juan county, organized a party to search for the missing man.

They arrived at the cabin of one Hugh Parks, an eccentric individual. The were refused entrance to the house or a drink of water. The sheriff swore out a warrant for the arrest of Parks, on the ground of insanity. The men then formed an ambush and watched the cabin. After some time Parks was seen to emerge, dragging the body of a dead man which was afterward found to be that of the missing James Barker. This occurred on Friday last and for three days the house was closely watched and nothing of life withing being manifested Wilbur Wilson, one of the sheriff's men, volunteered to enter the cabin but on finding the door unlocked, was frightened and ran back to his comrades. He again approached the cabin, but as he stepped into the doorway the crazy man within shot him dead.

The sheriff and his men waited no longer, but saturating a bale of hay with coal they rolled it to the cabin and fired it, burning the cabin to the ground. A second shot was heard in the cabin, but it is not known whether Parks shot himself or at the men. His charred body was afterwards found in the ruins of the cabin.

A committee was appointed to confer with President-elect Cleveland in Barbour's behalf.

In the Morrow court martial to-day but two witnesses were examined, and their testimony confirmed the statement made by Colonel Morrow yesterday, by his counsel, ex-Governor Boutwell. The latter submitted the case to the case to the court with a brief argument, contending that Colonel Morrow had acted in good faith in the whole matter, although he may have committed some errors which he now regrets. The judge advocate made no argument and the court took the matter under consideration.

Mrs Dudley as Cool as Ever.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—O'Donovan Rossa's assailant, Mrs. Dudley, was in her usually placid frame of mind this morning when the reporter called to see her. She had just finished reading a letter which was brought into her from the morning mail. Mrs. Dudley said she had received congratulatory messages from both Englishmen and Irishmen. Some offered assistance, others advice. She read with considerable amusement a report from London that she had, during her youth, studied for the stage. She is still reticent concerning her personal history.

The Whole Story Denied.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 5.—The story sent from here that the Sons of St. George were organizing as special detectives in the employ of the English government causes intense indignation among the members of the order in this city. The whole story is denied in the most emphatic manner. It is purely beneficial and social in its character and although none but natives of England or direct descendants can become members nine-tenths of its membership are naturalized citizens.

Takes Justice in His Hands and Deals Retribution to Three Atrocious Murderers.

Summary Punishment Dealt Out to the Perpetrators of a Revolting Tragedy.

The History of the Crime and the Full Particulars of the Execution.

A Horrible Murder.

DES MOINES, February 4.—The history of the Jellerson murder is as follows: About 2 o'clock on the morning of April 26th, 1884, occurred one of the most brutal outrages known in the history of western Iowa, at a point three miles southeast of Audoban. Herman Jellerson, an old man, was the victim. He had raised a family of one boy and five girls. About three years prior to the crime, John Smythe, from Green county, married one of the girls. He was a rough, drinking character, and soon made trouble and arrayed the mother and children against the father. He accused the old man with incest with one of the girls and threats were made by Smythe and others against Jellerson.

Smythe moved to Carroll county, and induced Ciscero, the son, and the girl, Lucy, to go with him. Jellerson was a cripple, not strong mentally, but strictly honest in all his dealings, and a kind husband and father. Ciscero and Smythe so harrassed him that at times he was partially insane. On the morning of the murder three horsemen rode to the house where Jellerson and wife lived alone and boisterously entered the bedroom where the victim was sleeping. His wife, at the inquest, said it was too dark to recognize who they were. She asked what they wanted, but a rough voice told her to keep still. The old man said "what are you here for."

She answered, "it is not Ciscero, but it is John Smythe."

Jellerson was then seized and violently dragged from the bed onto the floor, she also following out. Jellerson cried for help, but the murderers put a rope around his neck, pulled his shirt over his head, and then dragged him by the rope 340 feet to a maple tree. They threw the rope over a limb about eight feet from the ground and drew him up, pinioning his arms and left him. They then mounted horses and rode away. The old lady started for the neighbors to give an alarm when one of the men rode back and told her to keep quiet or they would string her up.

At the inquest a verdict was returned that Ciscero Jellerson, John Smythe and another party committed the deed. Lucy who was accused of incest with her father, was also implicated. She had married a man named Joe Wilson. The sheriff started at once to arrest the suspected parties. Smythe, Wilson and Ciscero were soon brought in and when arraigned the first two asked for counsel, and when they were taken back to jail, Ciscero asked to make a confession under oath, which he did. He told how the rope was put on his father's neck, he taking hold of the end and Wilson and Smythe behind him, dragged the body along naked over the frozen ground. While being hauled by the neck the father spoke and Wilson stepped back and tightened the rope. Smythe putting the rope over a limb while Wilson lifted the body up.

"Smythe and I pulled the body clear off the ground and then wound the rope around the body and left it. I think father was dead when we left him, as he kicked only once or twice after he was hauled up."

Wilson tore the old man's shirt off and wrapped it around his head on the trip back to Wilson's; how they wore Smythe's hat, his being lost in the house and going bareheaded; how they threatened to kill him if he did not go with them, &c. He also said Wilson planned the murder.

Ciscero had not seen his mother since the murder, but his story was exactly as hers, so he probably told the truth. It appeared by Ciscero's statement that Lucy had married Wilson through the influence of Smythe, the wedding having taken place about two months before the murder. It seems Wilson suspected Lucy had not always been virtuous and he accused her, when she admitted she had been compelled by her father to submit to him repeatedly. This incensed Wilson, and he said that he would leave her or kill the old man. She wanted him to do neither. They were all bound over for trial, but the judge granted a change of venue and this so incensed the people of Audoban that they determined justice should be meted out to the criminals, and the end of the tragedy has been brought about.

The Jellerson murderers are lodged in jail at Audubon, this state, to await trial. At About 2 o'clock this morning Sheriff Herbert and family, Deputy Sheriff Workman and I. H. Jenkins were sleeping up stairs in the jail when they were awakened by raps at the front door. The jail is a two story brick on the northeast corner of the square, that is the residence portion, but the jail proper is back and only one story in height. Inside is an iron cage containg two cells. The sheriff went to window and asked what was wanted.

Answer was, "We want to see you."

The sheriff inquired what they wanted of him.

The reply came, "We want the Jellerson murderers."

The sheriff looked and saw what was estimated at from 500 to 750 men gathered about the jail. He told them that the prisoners were in his charge as an officer and he would not give up the keys, but would defend and protect the prisoners The answer was that they did not propose to allow the prisoners to leave town in the night as was rumored, that the sheriff contemplated removing them. The sheriff told the crowd that if they would go away he would take the prisoners away in the day time and would tell when it would be done, but would neither give up the keys nor the prisoners. The mob warned him not to interfere. The sheriff stepped back grabbed a navy revolver and commenced firing over the heads of the crowd to frighten them, but a bullet through the window glass where he was standing showed that the crowd meant business. In a small room leading to the upper story and this room is guarded by iron doors and another one opens into the jail from the room, these were for the purpose of protecting the jail from without, but this time they protected a crowd, and the imprisoned sheriff and deputy officers attempted to open them but the crowd drove rods into the keyholes and then the doors were secure. The walls of the jail proper were then attacked with sledges and soon a large hole was made. The men rushed inside and fastened the other doors and the officers were powerless. There was a high board fence running through the court yard, and after the prisoners were captured, Smythe and Wilson were hung to stringers of the fence boards, being knocked off for the purpose. Ciscero, the son, was hanged to a bandstand, about the center of the square. Smythe was killed by a bullet shot in his left eye. Wilson had a bullet shot in the forehead, another in the face and several in the body.

CONSTERNATION.

Khartoum Taken by the Arabs by Strategy and After Ferocious Fighting.

The English Routed, Their Steamer Wrecked and Their Retreat Covered with Blood.

The Jubilant Gladness of England Gives Way to General Depression and Dismay.

The Fall of Khartoum.

LONDON, Feb. 5, 10 a. m.—The intelligence is just received here that Khartoum has been captured by Arabian rebels. The whereabouts of General Gordon is unknown. He is probably a prisoner in the hands of the victors. General Wolseley telegraphs that Khartoum has fallen, and he says that when Colonel Wilson, who went from Metemneh to Khartoum, had reached the latter place, he found it in the hands of the rebels. He returned to Metemneh under heavy from both banks of the river.

The Daily Telegraph, on official authority, confirms the report of the fall of Khartoum. It says the rebels secured the city by treachery. Gen. Gordon is probably a prisoner in the hands of the victors.

The war office issued the followidg telegrams from Gen. Wolseley, announces that the fall of Khartoum took place on January 26th. He says Col. Wilson arrived at Khartoum January 28th. He was greatly surprised to find that the enemy were in possession of that place. He immediately started on his return down river and proceeded under a heavy fire from the rebels, When some miles below the Shublaka cataract, Col. Wilson's steamers were wrecked but he and his whole party managed to reach an island in safety where they are secure.

A steamer has gone to bring them back to the British camp near Metemneh. General Wolseley says he has no information regarding the fate of General Gordon and does not know whether he is dead or alive.

The morning papers issue extra editions, in which they continue to affirm the fall of Khartoum, but the war office as yet has given out no official intelligence in regard thereto, and refuses to state the character of dispatches received from General Wolseley or to declare whether the report is true. The report that Khartoum had been taken by the rebels reached Korti by messengers from Gubal, but it is said no official dispatch from Colonel Wilson, confirming the report has been received by General Wolseley. It is possible Colonel Wilson was unable to reach Khartoum, owing to the heavy fire of the enemy, and his return gave rise to the report that Khartoum had been captured.

There is no longer any doubt that Mahdi holds possession of Khartoum. Some hopes are entertained that General Gordon may still be holding out in the citadel of the town, meanwhile the excitement in London and everywhere throughout the British Isles where the news is known is rising to fever heat. Most people take a gloomy view of the position of the British troops in the Soudan.

The jubilant gladness which characterized England in regard to Egypt ever since the welcome news of Stewart's successful arrival in the neighborhood of Metemneh was received, has given way to universal depression, and expressions of dismay and forboding come from almost everybody. It is too early to estimate the influence of the news on the political situation. The war office is beseiged with army officers tendering their services for active duty in Soudan.

A number of military officers of repute express the opinion that unless reinforcements are hurried forward to Korti the fall of Khartoum may lead to disaster to the forces under Lord Wolsely and General Earle. The cabinet council has been summoned to meet at once. Gladstone is fearfully disturbed by the news and some people believe he will resign.

The native reports are that Mahdi had 60,000 men in the vicinity of Khartoum. He introduced a number of his emissaries into the city. These emissaries mingled freely with the native troops under General Gordon, and by bribes, threats and working on their religious feelings induced them to mutiny, and 7,000 of the garrison deserted to the rebels leaving Gordon only 20,000 faithful soldiers. With this small force he attempted to hold the city against Mahdi's great army, but after a severe fighting, in which a large number of rebels were killed, he was compelled to surrender.

The news of the downfall of Khartoum created grave apprehension in regard to the whole Egyptian problem among members of the cabinet. Gladstone and Earl Granville started for London as soon as the news reached them. A cabinet council will be held this evening. The military authorities are of the opinion that Gen. Gordon sent the greater part of his troops down the Nile to meet Stewart's forces and so depleted the garrison in town and citadel of Khartoum, than an attack by enemies from Omdurman, was rendered much easier.

COLONEL LAMONT has written to the keeper of the Arlington hotel, in Washington, engaging rooms there for Mr. Cleveland and a family party of three sisters and a brother during inauguration week.

COL. WILLIAM F. VILAS is closing his law business at Madison and intends shortly to resign his seat in the Wisconsin legislature. It is said that Mr. Vilas is about to take up his residence in Washington.

ALL England is giving itself up to wild jubilation over the shooting of O'Donovan Rossa. This is hardly the proper spirit for a nation to manifest which has raised such a hue and cry against assassination, and it is certainly not the way to discourage assassins in their nefarious designs against her own citizens.

THE INDIANA LEGISLATURE.

Mr. Brownlee's bill to repeal the present ditch law was reported unfavorably by the committee. Speaking of the bill Mr. Brownlee said that ditching under the circuit law costs 40 per cent. more than it does in the commissioners' court, and that any man can have a "cat pond" drained, and compel men to ditch their land for a distance of ten miles. He charged that lawyers were in the habit of going to irresponsible parties and getting them to file petitions for drains; that all the parties whose lands were affected by the drain were compelled to pay the costs. Other gentlemen spoke in favor of the law, declaring that it was the most economical ever made. Mr. Williams thought it should be called a "law to confiscate property," and he moved to lay the report of the committee upon the table. The motion prevailed, and the bill to repeal was read a second time and ordered engrossed. Mr. Gooding, Mr. Hoban and others spoke for the repeal.

The bill to prevent gambling at agricultural fairs was engrossed.

The bill to require railroad companies to pay a reasonable attorney's fees in cases where stock is killed on their roads, and judgment for the value of the same is recovered, came up again yesterday on report of the judiciary committee. Several amendments were prepared and the bill and amendments were recommitted.

From the house committee on public expenditures, Mr. Gooding reported in favor of the Moody resolution, providing for the appointment of a special committee of five to investigate the affairs of the three new insane asylums. An amendment was adopted empowering the committee to send for persons and papers and to administer oaths.

Miss Callis, state librarian, has been directed to purchase a state flag.

Schley's bill for the incorporation of trades unions and industrial associations was recommended for indefinite postponement. The bill introduced by the same gentleman, to protect the health of female employes in mercantile and manufacturing establishments by providing them with seats when not actually employed, was favorably reported, being recommended for passage.

Two years ago the legislature amended the weight and measure law so that the number of pounds of oats required to constitute a bushel was increased from thirty-two to thirty-three. This proved very unsatisfactory especially to farmers living on the border counties as both in Ohio and Illinois thirty-two pounds of oats make a bushel. Now an effort will be made to restore the old law.

There were over three hundred teams driven into the town on last Monday, principally drawing logs for the saw mill of Colter & Co., who now employ a very large force of men.

The residence of B. Butt took fire a few days ago from an unknown cause. The damage was slight and fully insured in the Continental of New York.

Mrs. George Natfield was crossing the railroad track driving a very spirited horse which took fright at the engine, ran away and upset the sleigh, throwing out the occupants Mr. Natfield and a young lady, who were not hurt.

Thomas Davidson's horses, which was attached to a pair of bob-sleds and stood near the saw mill, took fright at the sound of the whistle and ran about two miles out of town where they were overtaken.

Feb. 5, 1885. JUSTUS.

A complete cure for that debilitating drain that indicates a weakness of the urinary organs, nasal catarrh and other evidences of a diseased mucuous membrane may be found in the use of Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. Don't be frightened by the advertisements of quack doctors. This remedy will purify the blood, strengthen the parts affected, heal all irritation of the mucuous membrane, and remove every symptom of the disorders. It is a sure cure for nervous debility and general ill health.

Some heedless fellow passed a $50 confederate note in Montreal for a nice ring.

Catarrh

Is a very prevalent and exceedingly disagreeable disease, liable, if neglected, to develop into serious consumption. Being a constitutional disease, it requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, acting through the blood, reaches every part of the system, effecting a radical and permanent cure of catarrh in even its most severe forms. Made only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Disraeli said a man helped twice to soup will drink tea and coffee out of the saucer.

The cry is still they come. It is absolutely astonishing the number of cures of every sort of disease that are daily affected by that modern marvel of medicine, Mishler' Herb Bitters. Mrs. C. J. Rhodes, a well known iron man of Safe Harbor, Pa., writes that his son was completely prostrated by fever and ague. Quinine and barks did him no good. He then sent for Mishler's Herb Bitters and in a short time the boy was quite well. It never fails.

Twenty-two of the great sugar plantations of the island of Cuba are farmed by the Jesuit order.

When old fashioned doctors were asked, "What is the best cure for rheumatism?" they invariably answered "six weeks." That meant;

Loss of time, 36 days...a $1.50	$54.00
Doctor bill	30.00
Medicines	10.00
Cash loss	$94.00
Detriment to business	Incalculable
Bodily suffering and mental w'ry	"
Probable loss of position	"

This was before the discovery of Athlophoros as a specific for rheumatism and neuralgia. L. H. Patterson, Copake, N. Y., writes: "For five years I have been subject to painful attacks of rheumatism, and obliged to put myself under medical treatment for two and three months at a time. On my last attack requested my son to go for a doctor. He said he had heard of your new specific called Athlophoros, and advised a trial. Imagine my surprise when relieved of all pain by taking one bottle. Have not had an attack since. It saved me quite a sum of money and weeks of suffering besides. Would not do without it. Have recommended it to others, and it has never yet failed to give relief.

This man talks just as Athlophoros acts. Both mean business from the start. Measured by dollars and cents simply, Athlophoros is a God send. Says A. B. Uaker 365 W. Harrison St., Chicago. Have been a victim of rheumatism for years. My head was quite drawn over my left shoulder. Language fails to express the good results of one bottle of your specific. I am now as good as new. My wife has suffered with rheumatism and neuralgia for fifteen years. I have paid doctor bills till they begin to be looked for as one of the regular monthly necessities. She took half a bottle, and has never been so free from pain as since." To these, and all others, Athlophoros is more than a Nevada silver mine or a South African diamond field.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL

The New York board of health estimates that 30,000 lives have been destroyed by the explosive qualities of petroleum. If every household would adopt the White Seal oil for family use, none of these unfortunate accidents would occur.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL

has none of the defects usually found in common oils. It cannot be exploded, does not char the wick, will not smoke, emits no offensive odor, and prevents the breaking of chimneys.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL

SCROFULA.

Vanderbilt's Money Couldn't Buy It.

The Acworth News and Farmer of this week says: Mrs. Elizabeth Baker, living within 3 miles of Acworth, remarked that Vanderbilt's fortune could not buy from her what six bottles of Swift's Specific has done for her. Her statement is as follows: For thirty-one years I have suffered almost death from that horrible disease, scrofula. For years I was unable to do anything in keeping up my domestic affairs. Last October I was induced to try Swift's Specific, and used two bottles, and was so much benefited by it that I purchased four more from Messrs. Northcut & Johnson, which has almost entirely relieved me. I feel like a new person, and can do all my own housework. Before I took the S. S. S. my life was a burden, as my entire person was covered with sores, and in this miserable condition I did not care to live. I had tried every known remedy, and my case was generally regarded as incurable. I had been treated by the best physicians to no avail. I most heartily recommend Swift's Specific to the afflicted.

Messrs. Northcut & Johnson, merchants at Acworth, say: We know Mrs. Elizabeth Baker personally; we are familiar with her case. She is highly esteemed in this community.

Rheumatism Twenty Years.

I have been a sufferer from rheumatism for twenty years, at times with almost intolerable pain. I had the best medical treatment, and took all sorts of remedies, but without relief. Being reduced almost to a skeleton, and not being able to walk even with crutches, I was induced to try Swift's Specific, and it acted like a charm, and I am to-day entirely relieved. Have thrown away my crutches, and am in excellent health. I believe Swift's Specific will cure the worst cases of rheumatism.

MRS. EZRA MENSHON, Macon, Ga., Aug. 4, '84.

Communication.

WETUMPKA, ALA., Sept. 28, 1884.—About six years ago I became afflicted with a very disagreeable skin disease, with large, dry sores and many crusted pimples on my face, hands and shoulders. The sore on my shoulder eat out a hole nearly an inch deep, and the cancerous appearance of one of the sores near my eye alarmed me very much. I tried all kinds of treatment, but found nothing that seemed to affect the disease. I finally decided to try S. S. S. on advice of a physician, and in a short time the scabs dropped from the sores and left my skin smooth and well. I consider S. S. S. the greatest blood medicine made, and the only thing that will cure the disease with which I was afflicted. I think my trouble was the result of a terrible attack of malarial fever, contracted while farming in the Tallapoosa river swamp. I can be found at my office in the court house at Wetumpka. You can refer to me.

A layer of heavy paper and matting covers the Academy floor to preserve the smooth boards from the feet of people who attend the entertainments there. Some complaint has been made that the floor is too slippery, but to put a preparation on it is to create a dust that is stifling and disagreeable. The Academy will be opened for skating purposes to-morrow morning.

M. Knight, general freight agent of the Wabash, has issued the following notice to agents and connections: "I am advised that on and after this date, on business from connecting lines where percentage divisions are in force, the Buffalo, New York and Philadelptia Railroad company will demand a minimum rate of 2½ cents per 100 pounds, where pro rata allows them less."

In the wise measures of Providence each person has a fixed time of life.

Father Benoit, alike to all others of the human family, came within this law.

For three score years and seventeen he dwelt in life.

His days were given to the service of God, for the welfare of his fellow man and his own soul's salvation.

Honors were conferred upon him by his church.

The people loved him.

The clergy venerated him.

The poor were his favorites.

The guiding star of his sayings and doings was charity.

We regret in sincerity of spirit that he is called from earth.

We submit to the laws of God with hearts shrouded in grief.

In accord with the teachings of the holy church, our belief in the communion of saints bids us hope a re-union in heaven with the father whose death we mourn upon earth.

AMUSEMENTS.

Harrison-Gourlay.

That people crave something which will make them laugh is evinced by the large audience that gathered at the Temple last evening. Harrison and Gourley are both good comedians and their parts in "Skipped by the light of the Moon" are so arranged that each appeared to the best advantage and brings them in strange contrast with each other.

There was the usual support. The performance last night was with the exception of a few new features and guys similar to their former rendition of the same farcial comedy in this city.

THE WHITE SLAVE.

Bartley Campbell's latest success, "The White Slave," was presented at the Academy last evening. The piece is brimful of action from first to last, the situations are strong and the characters are well drawn. May Newman, as Lisa, Charles White, as the negro preacher, Webster, as the lawyer, and Vellertein as a field hand, were exceptionably good in their parts. The scenic effects were admirable. It is one of the strongest and most pleasing melo-dramas on the boards.

TWAIN-CABLE.

This evening, at the Academy, Twain, the humorist, will tell jokes, and Cable, the novelist, will read stories. Two men better fitted to contrast strongly on the lyceum platform could scarcely be imagined, for Mr. Cable, although the possessor of a finesense of humor, is serious and earnest in his manner, while Mr. Clemens is unavoidably droll in everything he does and says. The literary people of Fort Wayne will fill the house.

THE POWER OF MONEY.

This melodrama will again be produced in this city at the Temple next Saturday evening. It comes with a strong cast. The plot is absorbing in interest and conveys a lesson in its moral worthy of attention. The spectacular feature has been improved and will greatly add to the success of the play.

THE COURT HOUSE.

Daily Record of Litigation in Various Courts and the News of the County Offices.

The circuit court was not in session to-day.

Paul Kuhne has been appointed administrator of the estate of Louis Anweiler. Bond, $400.

Lemuel C. Paine has sued Sherman L. Bullard for $1,500. Randall & Vesey appear for the plaintiff.

License to marry have been issued to Louis Banet and Belli Tillis and Thomas Baxter and Emma Smith.

The entire force of the county treasurer's office are working nights to get ready for the tax sale next Monday.

G. W. Hand and George H. Wilson were re-appointed jury commissioners by Judge O'Rourke this morning.

Judge Frazer will preside in the hearing of the John Knapp ditch case after the Little River drain is disposed of.

The Fremont Harvester company has proceeded against Isom Dollarhite et al. for $150. J. E. Graham is attorney for the plaintiff.

The Peerless Reaper company have sued Jacob Stoneman for $100, and Wm. H. Earlywine for $125. James E. Graham is attorney for the Reaper company.

James D. Paine has sued John Leininger et al for $3,200. He likewise applies for a receiver and injunction. Randall & Vesey appear as attorneys for Mr. Paine.

MONSIGNOR BENOIT'S WILL.

The last will of Monsignor Julian Benoit was filed in the office of the county clerk for record this morning. The prelate says in the preamble of the document that he bequeaths his earthly possessions for the glory of God, the salvation of his soul and the welfare of his neighbors.

First.—He leaves $1,000 to be given to the poor of the Cathedral congregation.

Second—He gives to Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger lots 60, 61, 62 and 63, Hamilton's second addition. This property is at the corner of Clinton and Holman streets.

Third—He bequeaths to Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger a piece of land north of the Jackson road, described as in the Wells reserve, township 31, range 12 east.

Fourth—He transfers to Miss Adelaide Courderoy the east half of lot 666, plot "B," Hanna's addition. She is not to take possession of the premises until after the death of Mary Jane Spence.

Fifth—To Rt. Rev. Bishop Palais, of Vincennes, he leaves $5,000.

Sixth—The remainder of his real and personal property, estimated at $1,000, he leaves to Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger.

Seventh—He gives everything to Bishop Dwenger that he may take good care of his old housemaid, Mrs. Mary Ryan, and so manage his property that it will benefit the people of the cathedral congregation he had served for thirty years.

The will is in Father Benoit's handwriting and was signed March 18, 1874, in the presence of Revs. J. H. Brammer and M. E. Campion. Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger is named as executor, and this morning he qualified.

Wm. P. Breen, who is attorney in relation to the will, tells us that most all the provisions of the document were carried out during Father Benoit's life time.

STINEBRENNER.

The Young Man Sent to Jail Without Bail, on Three Charges.

Yesterday morning Henry Stinebrenner had a preliminary hearing before 'Squire Randolph, of Huntington. He pleaded guilty to the charge of housebreaking and the larceny of a horse and sleigh, but said "not guilty" to the charge of murder. The justice then sent Stinebrenner to jail and refused to name bail, although the brothers of the young man said they were ready to furnish any sum. L. P. Milligan appears as attorney for the prisoner, who now refuses to talk to newspaper men.

The condition of Officer Max Baumgartner to-day is pretty much the same. His pulse is at 72, temperature, 98 degrees. His general system is normal. The bullet wound looks still healthy and is discharging. He complains somewhat of a pain in the lower part of the right lung when he coughs. He is still cheerful and encouraged and eats well.

The very best remedy that can be compounded from our present knowledge of drugs, for colds, coughs, asthma, bronchitis and other lung diseases, is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. It has cured many cases of consumption when all other remedies had failed. A single spoonful will cure an ordinary cough or cold and give instant relief to asthma. It is soothing, healing and strengthening to throat and lungs and is very pleasing to take.

HOW TO GET SICK.—Expose yourself day and night; eat to much without exercise; work too hard without rest; doctor all the time; take all the vile nostrums advertised, and then you will want to know how to get well, which is answered in three words—Take Hop Bitters!

EVERY crop of flings and falsehoods relative to Lieutenant Greely seems to be struck with a fatal frost before reaching maturity. Lieutenant Greely's years of service in the ice-fields have given him a quiet, frosty energy that will presently discourage his defamers.

IT can not be denied that Mrs. Dudley took an unfair advantage of Mr. Rossa. Mr. Rossa is a long-range Fenian who fights England 3,000 miles away, and fair play demands that the "hired assassins" of that country should fight Mr. Rossa, if at all, at the same distance.

THE sheriff of Center county, Pa., has appointed Mrs. Sheriff as his deputy. This plan of keeping as many of the fees as possible in the family has not been patented and may be imitated elsewhere to advantage. It may diminish the number of jail deliveries which occur when sheriff's go to see the boys in remote corners of their counties.

DIVORCE proceedings are never pleasant reminders of the uncertainties of married life. Some three years ago fashionable society was a good deal excited over the marriage of a western congressman to a Philadelphia lady. In less than a year the new made union was dissolved and the lady returned to her home in quakerland. It is now hinted that she is about to call upon the courts to decide the difference between her and her husband.

THE managers of the New Orleans exposition, which is drawing so poorly that it is already badly embarrassed for funds, will apply to congress for a loan of $300,000 in addition to the round million that they have already obtained from that source. It is not believed, however that congress will consent to help them further. If it should, it ought to be prepared also to help out unfortunate managers of shows on "the road" that happen to strike a bad run of business and "go broke." Congressional appropriations would doubtless be very gratefully received by strolling players whose baggage has been seized by the remorseless hotel landlord, and who are confronted with the discouraging necessity of "hoofing it" home again.

THE INDIANA LEGISLATURE.

M. H. Carer and other ex-employes of the insane hospital have made some charges against Dr. Fletcher, as superintendent of the institution. They think he is incompetent, and their paper has been referred to the senate committee on benevolent institutions, which will probably be the last heard of it.

The New Orleans exhibit appropriation of $3,900, for maintaining and peplenishing the Indiana display, passed the house the house yesterday by a vote of 75 to 12.

The house bill fixing the treasurer's bond at $500,000 passed.

In the house the bill repealing the law permitting aliens to hold real estate passed.

The house refused to concur the senate amendment reducing the state treasurer's bond from $1,000,000 o $500,000 and a conference meeting was appointed.

A long debate occurred on the bill providing for the teaching of the effects of alcohal in schools and an effort to pass it failed, being 43 for and 42 against.

KITCHEN ECONOMY.

Interesting Tests Made by the Government Chemist.

Dr. Edward G. Love, the analytical chemist for the United States government, has made some interesting experiments as to the comparative value of baking powders. Dr. Love's tests were made to determine what brands are the most economical to use, and as their capacity lies in their leavening power, the tests were directed solely to ascertain the available gas of each powder. Dr. Love's report gives the following:

Name of the Baking Powders.	Strength: Cub. In. Gas per each oz.
Royal (absolutely pure)	127.4
Patapsco (alum powder)	125.2*
Rumford's (phosphate) pure	122.5*
Rumford's (phosphate) old	32.7*
Hanford's None Such, fresh	121.6
Hanford's None Such, old	84.35
Redhead's	117.0
Charm (alum powder)	116.9*
Amazon (alum powder)	111.9*
Cleveland's (short weight ¾ oz.)	110.8
Sea Foam	107.9
Czar	106.8
Dr. Price's	101.6
Snow Flake (Groff's, St. Paul)	101.88
Lewis, Condensed	98.2
Congress, yeast	97.5
Pearl	93.2
C. E. Andrews & Co's (contains alum)	78.17
Hecker's	92.5
Gillett's	84.2
Bulk	80.5

*In his report the government chemist says:

"I regard all alum powders as very unwholesome. Phosphate and tartaric acid powders liberate their gas too freely in process of baking, or under varying climatic changes suger deterioration."

Dr. H. A. Mott, the former government chemist, after a careful and elaborate examination of the various Baking Powders of commerce, reported to the government in favor of the Royal brand.

A complete cure for that debilitating drain that indicates a weakness of the urinary organs, nasal catarrh and other evidences of a diseased mucuous membrane may be found in the use of Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. Don't be frightened by the advertisements of quack doctors. This remedy will purify the blood, strengthen the parts affected, heal all irritation of the mucuous membrane, and remove every symptom of the disorders. It is a sure cure for nervous debility and general ill health.

Some heedless fellow passed a $50 confederate note in Montreal for a nice ring.

The First Keen Twinge.

As the season advances, the pains and aches by which rheumatism makes itself known, are experienced after every exposure. It is not claimed that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a specific for rheumatism—we doubt if there is or can be, a remedy. But the thousands benefitted by Hood's Sarsaparilla warrant us in urging others who suffer from rheumatism to take it before the first keen twinge.

Disraeli said a man helped twice to soup will drink tea and coffee out of the saucer.

Here is a certificate picked up at random from many thousand. It is good enough to publish. It is from Edwin King, of Baltimore. He writes: "Having contracted a disease—a violent eruption on the arms, back and legs—for which no physician or medicine did me any good until I was induced to try Mishler's Herb Bitters. In one week's time I found great relief, and in two weeks time my health was entirely restored."

Nature's great remedy, Kidney Wort, has cured many obstinate cases of piles. This most distressing malady generally arises from constipation and a bad condition of the bowels. Kidney Wort acts at the same time as a cathartic and a healing tonic, removes the cause, cures the disease, and promotes a healthy state of the affected organs. James F. Moyer carriage manufacturer of Myerstown, Pa., testifies to the great healing powers of Kidney Wort, having been cured by it of a very bad case of piles which for years had refused to yield to any other remedy.

"THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME."

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL

The New York board of health estimates that 30,000 lives have been destroyed by the explosive qualities of petroleum. If every household would adopt the White Seal oil for family use, none of these unfortunate accidents would occur.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL

has none of the defects usually found in common oils. It cannot be exploded, does not char the wick, will not smoke, emits no offensive odor, and prevents the breaking of chimneys.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL

is a rich oil for illuminating purposes. It is as light in color as pure water. It gives a strong steady light, and burns much longer than common oils.

HOPE!

A young man named John Naves, living near here, had an eating cancer on his face, which had eaten away his nose, part of his cheek, and extended up nearly to his eye. It was one of the most angry eating sores that I had ever seen. His throat finally became involved to such an extent that he could only swallow liquid food. After using all the remedies without checking the ravages of the eating cancer, his general health was broken down, he was confined to his bed, and thought it to be only a question of time about his death from the cancer. I put him on Swift's Specific as a last resort, and he began to improve with the first dose. His general health improved at once, and rapidly; his throat got well; the ravages of the cancer were soon stopped; it began to heal around the edges; and after a few months treatment with S. S. S. he has gotten entirely well. His face is all healed over with new flesh, and his general health is excellent. His recovery is wonderful. M. F. CRUMLEY, M.D.

Cancer for Many Years.

TIPTONVILLE, TENN., Oct. 12, 1884.—Gentlemen I am [SSS] Specific has proud to in[form] you [SSS] CURED my [c]ancer, and that Swift's [Specific cured] it was a very bad one, I am in fine health—not better for twenty years. I have gained twenty-five pounds since I commenced taking SWIFT'S SPECIFIC
R. S. BRADFORD.

Snatched from the Grave.

Mrs. Sarah E. Turner and her mother Mrs. P. E. Bryan, for nineteen years residents of Humboldt, Tenn., make the following statements as to the merits of Swift's Specific. Mrs. Turner's case is well known in this community. She says:

"I was afflicted for two or more years with Eczema and Erysipelas combined. My whole system was broken down, my strength and appetite gone, and I became as helpless as a child, being lifted from place to place by my friends. I was treated by the best physicians in the community with Iodine of potash and the other usual remedies for such cases. I was given up to die by my friends. My sufferings were beyond description, and I had lost all hope of recovery. Last January I was induced to try Swift's Specific, having received a pamphlet from the company detailing its merits. The first half dozen bottles had the effect to bring back hope to my heart, and the thought of being well again brought joy and gladness to the household. I have taken altogether 24 bottles. The sores have all healed up and disappeared; my strength has returned, and I am able to do all kinds of housework. Swift's Specific, I honestly believe, snatched me from the grave, and I do not know how to be grateful enough for my recovery.
MRS. SARAH E. TURNER."

I know that S. S. S. has saved my daughter's life. She was the most wretched looking object that I ever saw when she commenced taking it, being perfectly helpless. I thank God that we heard of it. It has saved my child.
MRS. P. E. BRYAN.

The Maumee river is again on a high and the people of Toledo expect a flood. A letter from Napoleon says: "The ice between Independence and Grand Rapids dams on the Maumee is very heavy, and promises to make it damp for the low lands in the event of a rain. The ice at this place is from fourteen to eighteen inches in thickness and about the islands above and below the town the gorge of December is fast from the bottom up. We hope our bridge may be safe, but as the ice is as heavy as that of last year, and the force of the ice was stayed at just the right time by a gorge above us, it may be we will not be so fortunate again."

A MONEY KING.

The Buckeye Capitalist Who Holds a $100,000 Mortgage on Wells and Allen County Lands.

At the recorder's office E. B. McDowell and his deputies, Doug. E. McDowell and Finley Rhodes, says the Bluffton Times, have been kept hard at work. Besides the usual number of real estate transfers to be recorded, they have been busy drawing new mortgages and releasing old ones. John McKee, the great money lender from Warren, Ohio, has been here and loaned $8,000 or $10,000 in all manner of sums to some of the best farmers in the county. A Times reporter was informed yesterday that Mr. McKee had over $100,000 loaned in Allen and Wells counties, all well secured. His income from the interest accruing on these mortgages is enormous, and he makes regular visits to Bluffton and Fort Wayne, for the purpose of collecting this revenue.

A Card From W. D. Maher.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL:

FORT WAYNE, Feb. 6, 1885.

In "Tax Payers" article in to-day's Journal, he says in relation to jury fees. For the years 1875-6-7-8-9-1883 and 1884, the county paid for petit jurors $48,287.99. It received back in six of these years for jurors fees taxed in favor of the county in causes tried by jury, the sum of $38. I have not the receipts for 1883 if any."

The last sentence refers to my term of office and while my office is open to the inspection of any body, committee or expert, I still cannot allow the statement to go unnoticed.

Mr. Edgerton does not get correct information—whoever gives him statements does not give the truth or the facts.

I have the receipt of the county auditor, dated December 30, 1882, No. 545, which shows a payment of jury fees of $13.50. I had then been in office forty-five days.

I have his receipt, dated January 1, 1884, No. 56, for $135 jury fees. This was for 1883. The law is that I shall pay on January 1.

I have his receipt, dated December 31, 1884, No. 116, for $106 jury fees.

I have his receipt, dated Nov. 18, 1883, No. 46, for $175.60 jury fees in connection with other expenses.

I have his receipt, dated March 6, 1884, No. 75, for $150 jury fees, in connection with other expenses.

I have his receipt, dated February 4, 1884, No. 70, for $52.90 jury fees, in connection with other expenses.

I have his receipt, dated March 15, 1884, No. 76, for $48 jury fees, in connection with other expenses.

I have county order No. 9,572 issued by Whitley county, February 9, 1884, for $166.70, of which $125.20 is jury fees. This order was tendered by me February 10, 1884, to the treasurer of Allen county who refused to accept same. I think he was right. The matter was then reported to the county commissioners at their March, 1884, session, who authorized me to hold the said order until paid. Whitley county refuses to pay until Allen county redeems her own orders held by them.

The jury fee of $4.50 is taxed by me in every case tried by jury and collected when it is possible to do so. The tax payers pay in many instances twenty-four dollars per day for from one day to four weeks or more, yet the $4.50 is taxable but once and cannot be expected to offset the per diem.

I therefore am entitled to credit for collecting $808.20 jury fees in twenty-five months. Of course, this is only a drop in the bucket, yet it is all the drops I could get hold of.

I may say that I have accounts to collect, that are perfectly good, against other counties, that are not yet due, amounting to about $538.90, with prospect of more that will eventually be turned in to the county treasurer.

Respectfully,
WILLIS D. MAHER.

Cable and Clemens.

There was quite an assembly of literary people at the Academy last night to listen to the recitations of George W. Cable, the novelist, and S. L. Clemens, the author and wit. Mr. Cable opened the exercises with a humorous character sketch from his latest work, "Dr. Sevier." Mr. Clemens followed with one of his characteristic recitations, and soon the assembly was in the best of humor. Thus alternated the gentlemen and the interest and fun grew to the last when "Mark Twain" closed with his ghost story. Mr. Cable's subject was new to people not acquainted with southern characters. "Mark Twain" is a riddle. He never laughs, but his graveyard voice is handled in artistic style, and no person knows how to mingle the sublime and ridiculous better than he does. "Mark Twain" never received much of an education, but is a great character in his way.

The very best remedy that can be compounded from our present knowledge of drugs, for colds, coughs, asthma, bronchitis and other lung diseases, is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. It has cured many cases of consumption when all other remedies had failed. A single spoonful will cure an ordinary cough or cold and give instant relief to asthma. It is soothing, healing and strengthening to throat and lungs and is very pleasing to take.

Loved by Ladies.

Ladies love delicate and delicious perfumes. In Parker's Hair balsam they not only satisfy this taste, but have an article which arrests falling hair, removes dandruff, restores the original color and imparts a beautiful gloss, softness and life. Does not soil the linen, is not a dye, is cleanly and economical.

THE COURT HOUSE.

Daily Record of Litigation in Various Courts and the News of the County Offices.

Yesterday Auditor Griebel sold the Buck, Ginther, Couvenet Voirol and Ridenour ditches. To-day he sold the Edgerton ditch.

Judge Sinclair was appointed by Judge Hench to attend to all emergency business in the superior court during his absence in the south.

The Hamilton bank yesterday began suit against J. B. and G. A. Fry and Christian Schiefer, demanding $5,000. Coombs, Bell & Morris are attorneys for the bank.

Yesterday in the superior court the direct evidence for the petitioners in the Little River ditch trial was concluded. Dr. Walker, the state ditch surveyor, testified as to the practicability and general utility of the ditch. In the construction of the ditch, Furguson mill dam, near Huntington, will have to be removed. The Wabash railroad is assessed $30,000, the Nickel Plate $4,000, and the Muncie $1,000. A sharp contest by the remonstrators will be made and the trial may last some time. The defense is being heard to-day.

CHOKED TO DEATH.

Jacob B. Swinehart, of Aboit Township, Strangled by a Piece of Food.

Last evening Jacob B. Swinehart suddenly expired at his home in Aboit township. The old gentleman had long been ill and gradually approached the end of life. Last evening he seemed to rally and asked to have supper served him. His request was gratified and the patient ate heartily. Suddenly a gurgling noise attracted attention and before the members of the household could understand the situation, Mr. Swinehart was choked to death by a piece of food. Mr. Swinehart has lived in this county for forty years and was widely known. His friends will be pained to learn of his sudden death.

L. T. Etsold has moved his book, paper and notion store from 12 West Berry street to No. 18 West Berry, formerly occupied by Wm. Irwin, where he will be pleased to see all his old customers and all others who will favor him with a call.

FACES OF EXCEEDING INTEREST.

Persons Attracting Most General Attention at the Present Time.

MISS EVA MACKAY.

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Bryant Mackay, heiress of the "Bonanza King," to Don Fernando Julien Colonna on February 12, has elicited considerable curiosity as to Miss Mackay's appearance; this we gratify by an engraving from the latest photograph made in this country of her. She is only a daughter by adoption of Mr. Mackay; her father, Dr. Bryant, was her mother's first husband. Miss Eva, as she is called, was born in California about 22 years ago. Since 1874 she has lived with her mother in Paris, for the purpose of pursuing her studies, which have been exceedingly thorough. Besides a study of the arts, she has become a thorough linguist, speaking with facility five languages. She is also an accomplished musician and possessed of a fine voice. The fortunate young prince who secures this lady belongs to one of the most illustrious families of Italy. He is 27, accomplished, speaking the English language fluently. He is the owner of the yacht Sappho, and at present an officer in the Italian army, from which it is expected he will resign and make, with his bride, an extended tour through this country.

Defendant in the Forfeiture Breach of Promise Case.

LORD GARMOYLE.

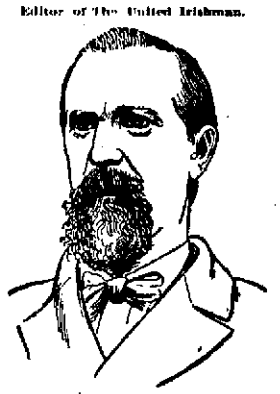

The arrival in this country of Lord Garmoyle, more generally known in England as "Gumboil," has caused a flutter of excitement among the ladies, who are anxious to see the youth who preferred to pay $50,000, or rather have his father pay it, than marry Miss Fortescue, one of the prettiest ladies in England, whom he had promised to marry. Lord Garmoyle's father was the son of an Irish butcher named Cairns, which made the family's objections to their son's marrying Miss Fortescue, an account of her plebian blood, appear the more ridiculous in the eyes of all England. His lordship, it is said, really loved the pretty actress, and is taking the present trip around the world more with a view to forget her than for the pleasure of sight-seeing.

Information About Poets.

[Burlington Free Press.]

A biographical writer says that Hannah More, the poetess, had corns. We are delighted to know it. Any information of this nature about poets is exceedingly cheering.

Editor of The United Irishman.

O'DONOVAN ROSSA.

The individual most talked of on both sides of the Atlantic since the recent dynamite explosions is the original of the accompanying portrait. He has been the subject of more editorials and cartoons in the London papers than is usually granted to more deserving mortals. Rossa carries in his pocket a decree of banishment which prevents his stepping on British soil, and yet the English press are crying out for his extradition in a way to show there is no resident of the United States they are more anxious to have returned to the control of their government. The fact is, Rossa is nothing but a very successful scarecrow. He is only the trombone in the rather inharmonious band of Irish patriots, while the real players who are furnishing the music to which the British government and public are now dancing are concealed from view by the noise and blare of the irrepressible O'Donovan. All he cares for is that he shall attract attention, and if the "fairies," as he calls them, are successful in frightening England, then is O'Donovan happy. Rossa is 53 years-old, was a shopkeeper in Cork, Ireland, his native place, until he was imprisoned for being a member of the Phœnix society. He was again put in prison in 1865, and remained there until 1870, when he was banished from the country. The dirty little rooms he calls his offices in New York have more the appearance of a lounging place for senseless bubblers than the rendezvous of earnest conspirators.

Good Advice Anyhow.

[Army and Navy Journal.]

Gen. Judson Kilpatrick used to relate the following of himself: Soon after the announcement in the newspapers that he had been appointed minister to Chili he was met by an old lady who had known him from childhood, and to whose bucolic mind the general's large way of stating things had sometimes seemed like exaggeration. "Well, Jud," she said, "I hear you have been called to the ministry. Glad to hear it. You'll make a real good preacher; but (solemnly) Jud, you must stop your lying."

PIRATES OF PENZANCE.

Some Facts of Interest Concerning the Forthcoming Presentation.

On Friday evening next, one week from to-day, Gilbert & Sullivan's beautiful opera, "The Pirates of Penzance; or, the Slave of Duty," will be given at the Masonic Temple by the Fort Wayne Opera company, under the direction of Prof. Otto Schmidt, and on Saturday evening, the 14th, at the same place, will be presented a grand operatic concert in which nearly all the selections will be from tuneful light operas. The sale of seats for both entertainments will begin on Tuesday morning, February 10, at 11 o'clock, and continue at the usual hours for opening the box office, until 1 o'clock p. m. of Wednesday. During this sale, no seats for single entertainments will be reserved; but on Wednesday afternoon, February 11, at 4 o'clock, the sale for single reserved seats for either of the entertainments will be opened. The price of reserved seats for the season of two nights has been fixed at $1.25, and single reserved seats will be sold at 75 cents. On the evening of the entertainments, the general admission to the balcony will be 50 cents. No individual will be permitted to reserve more than six (6) seats. Parties who have subscribed for tickets, and others who desire to save the time required in making change at the box office can purchase orders for season tickets now at the News office. The sale at the box office will be greatly facilitated by this method, and much confusion and tedious delay will thereby be avoided. Private boxes can also now be secured by application at the News office. As the expense of preparing these entertainments will not fall far below $1,000, there will be absolutely no free list.

Stereopticon Exhibition.

An illuminated view of a dyspeptic's stomach would be a frightful sight and a dreadful warning. A view of the interior of a healthy stomach is not unpleasant, but on the contrary, is a very interesting sight. There is nothing like Brown's Iron bitters to keep the stomach healthy or to restore it when demoralized by the effects of indigestion. Miss Ida Shivers, Ellicott City, Md., says, "I suffered from dyspepsia and general prostration. Brown's Iron bitters improved me from the start."

Pauperism in Paris is not increasing, but slightly diminishing.

The Hop Plasters have a wonderful sale, and why? Because they cure backache, stiff joints, pain in the side and all soreness in any part. People appreciate them. Any druggist, 25 cents.

Italy exports three times as much fruit as it did three years ago.

☞ A happy thought. Diamond Dyes are so perfect and so beautiful that it is a pleasure to use them. Equally good for dark or light colors. 10 cents at druggists. Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt. Sample card, 32 colors, and book of directions for 2c. stamp.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

I have been bothered with catarrh for about twenty years. I could not tell how many different remedies I have tried, and none seemed to reach my case like Ely's Cream balm. I had lost my smell entirely for the last fifteen years, and I had almost lost my hearing. My eyes were getting so dim I had to get some one to thread my needle. Now I have my hearing as well as I ever had and I can see to thread as fine a needle as ever I did, and my smell is partly restored and it seems to be improving all the time. I think there is nothing like Ely's Cream balm for catarrh. I always had a trouble with my throat and a little hacking cough, and I am almost well of that. Mrs. E. E.
